

Legislative

The branch of government that creates and votes on bills that could become laws.

The branch of government that signs bills into laws and enforces them.

Judicial

The branch of government that interprets laws and decides if they are constitutional.

Executive

Heber M.
Wells

The first Utah State governor.

Martha Hughes Cannon

The very first female state senator in U.S. History.

Suffrage

The right to vote.

Lobbyist

A person that tries to influence
legislators to vote for or against a bill.

checks and balances

Edmunds-Tucker Act

Utah women's right to vote was taken away
in 1887 by the:

A system that checks or controls
the other branches
to maintain a balance of power.

Who Martha
Hughes Cannon
beat to win a senate election

governor

The head of the executive branch
of the state government

January 4, 1896

The date
Utah became a state

her husband, Angus Cannon

Senate.

The legislative Branch has two parts, the House of Representatives and the:

Free Pass
this card
gives you a free
match